Reports Show Successful Year's Work—Receipts $1,000 More Than Last Yast Year—New Officers Elected.

There was a fair turnout at the annual meeting of the Red Cross held in Crowe's hall last Tuesday afternoon, and great interest in the success of the society for the past year was manifested by all present.

After the reading and adoption of the minutes of the last annual meeting reports from the various department heads were read. In turn each one was adopted and votes of thanks were tendered to the several committees concerned for their capable and efficient work during the year.

The secretary's report showed that there were 190 active members of the society and that regular meetings of the executive were held monthly during the year. Other matters regarding the work accomplished were noted and showed that most satisfactory work had been accomplished during the year.

Mrs. Oates, as superintendent of the work, submitted a report giving in detail all the articles made up by the society for the year and forwarded to the boys at the front. In all some 6,230 articles were made up ready for use and because of the new auxiliaries formed recently the output had greatly increased durin the past few months.

C. W. Reade, the newly elected treasurer, submitted the following financial statement for the year:

Certified to be correct,
C. W. READE,
Honorary Treasurer.

After submitting the report Mr. Reade pointed out that the receipts from all sources this year were almost one thousand dollars larger than last year, notwithstanding the large donation which was made by the labor unions as a result of their Labor Day celebration. This increase in the receipts also meant an increase in the work done in all departments. The report was received with great applause.

Mrs. Wedderburn, Mrs. Mansfield and Mrs. Scram represented the Harvest Vale auxiliary at the meeting and although that auxiliary has only been organized a few weeks, they were able to report most satisfactory and encouraging progress.

The election of officers followed and resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. G. L. Gordon.
Vice President—Mrs. J. Ellis.
Secretary—Mrs. E. L. Stone.
Treasurer—C. W. Reade.
Executive Committee—Mrs. Lydiatt, Mrs. Stoner, Miss Gibson, Mrs. Herbert, Mrs. Lavelle, Mrs. Cann, Mrs. Moffatt, Mrs. Argue, Mrs. Oates, Mrs. Hodge, Donald McLachlan, R. R. Stoner, W. Perrins, A. J. Learmonth, G. Lydiatt, N. Fennaty, E. H. Sellhorn, D. Kerr, H. J. Sissons, Chas. Oakland, Rev. H. C. B. Gibson, Rev. G. L. Gordon, and E. L. Stone.

After some discussion it was decided to make an effort to have all the industries in town adopt the percentage system of giving like the Rolling Mills and the Brick and Coa l Company, and a committee consisting of Messrs. C. W. Reade, H. W. Harper, Rev. H. C. B. Gibson and E. L. Stone, das appointed to see if this could be arranged.

Oddfellows Hold A Social Evening

The officers and members of the local Odd Fellows lodge gave an "At Home" in Reid's hall last evening to which they invited their friends. When the time arrived to start the evening's program there was a large and enthusiastic crowd in attendance and all entered heartily into the various forms of amusement provided.

Progressive whist was the first item on the program and as no time was lost between games all got well acquainted in making the rounds. The final tally showed that the games were very close, as Mrs. Stone and H. Jackman only won the prizes by very narrow margins.

After cards the chairs and tables were removed and the strains of a dreamy waltz by the orchestra signified that dancing was the next order. During the midnight intermission a dainty lunch was served, after which dancing was resumed.

A number of friends were present from Medicine Hat and before leaving Mr. Campbell, one of their number, took occasion to congratulate the local entertainment committee of the great success of the evening and to thank them for the pleasant social evening provided.

Food Board Organizer Wants Branch Here

Miss Ponton, of Edmonton, assistant organizer of the Provincial Food Board, was in town last week and while here called upon Mrs. Lydiatt, president of the Civic Improvement League, to see if some steps could be taken here to have the women of the town interested in the food conservation movement.

As there is no organization here looking after that branch of war work it was suggested that the Civic Improvement League undertake it. The matter will be brought before the League at the regular meeting to be held Wednesday afternoon when it is hoped there will be a full attendance.

While here Miss Ponton made several inquiries as to how the law is being observed with regard to food stuffs and left some instructions as to how to proceed if the League decides to undertake the work.

Want Name for The New Cemetery

Since the Civic Improvement League has undertaken to do certain preliminery work in connection with the getting of the new cemetary site ready to be put to some use, the question now arises "what will the cemetery be called. In order to help them select a name the members of the League would like if any who think they have one suitable would send it in to the secretary, Mrs. Wallace, before the regular meeting next Wednesday. The Review's contribution is "Riverside" or "Hillcrest."

To Send Xmas Presents to Soldiers

The postmaster general states that Christmas parcels for the Canadian expeditionary forces in France should be mailed in time to be dispatched from Canadian ports not later than the middle of November. Transportation is congested during the Christmas season, and those who are sending parcels to their friends in the trenches are urged to post them early if they wish to have them delivered by Christmas.

Good News From All Battle Fronts For This Week

The week started out with continued good news from all battle fronts. Besides great advances and captures of men and munitions on the western fronts London sends out the report that Bulgaria has yielded to the Allies' terms and that Bulgaria gives up completely the control of her railways. This practically means that Bulgaria cut off from all lines of communication with German, is now out of the war. In turn this also means that it will only be a matter of time till Turkey finds herself in the same position. The following are the reports from day to day:

SUNDAY.

French, British, Americans and Belgian forces in the last three days have captured 40,000 prisoners, and 300 guns, it is estimated in Paris. Since July 18, the allies have captured 200,000 prisoners, 3,000 guns, 20,000 machine guns and enormous quantities of material. This does not take into account the operations in Macedonia and Palestine.

British are fighting on the outskirts of Cambrai, according to reports at noon today.

Latest dispatches from the western front say that everything is going well and that the allies have made distinct progress on all sectors under attack.

Between Dixmude and Ypres, 6,000 prisoners have been captured and the Germans have been pressed back from four to five miles.

The fall of Cambrai is considered only a matter of time, and the allies have an important footing on the eastern side of the underground canal in the neighborhood of Bellecourt. There is every likelihood that St. Quentin soon will share a similar fate.

The French are maintaining steady progress in Champagne and the enemy apparently, is retiring from the Chemin-Des Dames.

MONDAY.

The Belgians and the second British army are progressing splendidly in Flanders, where the situation has become fraught with intensely dramatic possibilities. The Germans have received some re-inforcements in the shape of two tired divisions which have been withrawn from the Somme fighting of Sept. 26. Consequently the resistance has become stiffened somewhat, but now are not sufficiently formidable to arrest a general advance.

The Belgians got into Dixmude by a smart flanking movement and went through the town swiftly. Stiff fighting took place and a large party of the enemy held out obstinately in the Hotel de Ville, but eventually were all captured or killed. An entire battery of 150 howitzers were captured in Houthoist forest.

Half of the Chemin-des-Dames, from which the enemy is retiring, has been captured by the French.

British forces have crossed the Schedit canal and captured Crevecoeur south of Cambrai.

The British have cut the Hindenburg line on a front of eight miles and have penetrated through it to a depth of three miles in flanking operations about St. Quentin.

British troops advancing in Belgium today captured Gheulwe and are now about two miles outside of the railroad junction at Menin.

TUESDAY.

French troops entered St. Quentin. Violent explosions were observed in St. Quentin beginning about six o'clock this morning. General Debeny's forces, operating with the British to the north of the town, advanced beyond the St. Quentin-Cambrai road.

Between Urvillers and Ceriay, the French are meeting with much strong-er resistance by machine gun nests, but everywhere have advanced in this region south of

WE MUST DO MORE.

Those returning from the old country as well as newspaper reports and letters from various sources quite frequently remind us that here in this country, and especially right here in our own neighborhood, we haven't fully realized yet that there is a war on over in Europe. Of course this is not meant to be taken literally. Even a child would know what was meant by the expression. To be sure we know the greatest war in history is now on its highest and most critical stage, but so far as feeling its effects and experiencing its trials, hardships, sufferings and sacrifices, it can be said in very surety, that we know nothing about it.

At times we are prone to find fault with conditions brought about by the war even at this distance from the seat of conflict. If in these times of complaining we would stop to think of what others are called upon to do and indure even in our own British Isles, our complaints would turn to prayers of thankfulness. In talking over this matter only the other day with a lady whose relatives all live in the old country, she told us that her mother who is over sixty years of age was out helping with work in the corn fields, that her sister who had hitherto not known what hard work was, was taking her place with others in her class in the munition plants and that every night after 10 o'clock she cycled six miles to her work.

By referring to these incidents we do not do so to minimize the efforts put forth by both men and women in this country. We have been and are accomplishing great things so far as we go. We simply refer to them to remind ourselves that the end is not yet and that much more is expected of us. Success of the past few months in all theatres of the war have been so encouraging that we are liable to get the idea we can slacken our efforts and energies and sit back to wait patiently for the shouting. This idea should not be entertained for a minute. This war is to be fought to a finish and those who are in a position to know tell us that in all probability history will record that the greatest achievements will be obtained and the war finally won and settled in the last five minutes.

Let us, therefor, not grow weary but rather determine to do even more, so that we will be there at the finish with our contribution.

WHAT IS THRIFT.

Leaders througout Canada who have an eye to the successful continuance of this country in the war have organized a branch for the encouraging and educating of our people along lines of thrift. It is a most important branch of war work and if properly and seriously considered by all concerned will be an important factor in the closing hours of the war and in the readjustment period after the war. In introducing the subject in a pamphlet just issued the writer has the following to say:

"Before you can practice a virtue you must know what it is. When we speak of thrifty people we are apt to picture them living on cheap food, in cheap quarters, wearing shabby clothes, having little or no pleasures, and saving every cent possible. But that is not thrift—far from it. Thrift is a greater virtue than the mere saving of money. Don't forget that.

"The prudent man looks ahead and gets ready. The frugal man lives carefully and saves persistently. The economical man spends judiciously, buys wisely and wastes nothing. The industrious man works hard and saves hard; plans carefully, manages economically and saves consistently. Thrift is all of prudence, economy, frugality and industry—and 'then some.' Thrift is that instinct of the dog that buries the bone he doesn't want, for tomorrow's wants; the instinct of the squirrel that knows nutting is out of season in the winter."

COMPARISON.

From time to time in these columns we have preached a little sermon from the text "Deal at Home." We have done so and keep at it simply because we believe that not only more satisfactory results can be obtained and money saved to the individual, but also because we are firmly convinced beyond a doubt, that there is nothing that will contribute more to the building up of a town, socially, morally, industrially and every other way, than a good wholesome spirit of co-operation, helpfulness, friendliness and unity of action. This cannot be gainsayed and we do not think it is going a bit too far to expect that those principals should be carried into our business dealings.

In advocating this principal, whether it be under the heading of "dealing at home," living and letting live," "spending your money where you make it," or a dozen other such, we are not prompted by a feeling of sentiment only. Looking at it from a selfish standpoint it can readily be seen that by sending money created in our own town to some other centre we are helping to build up that other town to the disadvantage of our own. If we should be property owners, we are helping to increase the value of property in that other town and decrease it in our own; we are helping to build roads, sidewalks, sewers, schools, churches, etc., somewhere else and to discourage it at home.

Of course we know that the big thing in dealing with catalogue houses is that people think they can get things cheaper in this way. This may be the case in a few articles but we have personally proven that on the whole—when quality and price are considered—the very opposite is the case.

Only this week we, like many others in town, received a catalogue from an eastern firm, and immediately on receipt of it we decided to investigate. We therefore made the rounds of the stores in town handling the lines of goods advertised in this catalogue and the result was most astonishing. In every case where prices were compared the local dealers had the advantage by a good margin, and in many cases the identical goods, sillilarly discribed and made by the same manufacturers, were compared. Some of these goods are being advertised by our local merchants in this issue of the Review. Look them over and see for yourselves.

PRECAUTIONS.

A contageous disease, known as Spanish influenza, has broken out in the training camps of both Canada and the United States and appears to be spreading to the civilian population in many centres. It is of a serious type and when not properly taken care of it has, in many cases proved fatal. As a safeguard physicians have recommended the following precautions:

Keep feet and clothing dry.
Avoid crowds.
Protect your nose and mouth in the presence of sneezers.
Gargle your throat three times a day with a mild antiseptic, if only salt and water.
Don't neglect a cold.
Keep as much as possible in the sunshine.
Don't get "scared."

In this issue the Military Service branch carries two advertisements which all concerned should read over carefully. One refers to the registration of United States citizens now living in Canada, and the other to the men who are exempted as farmers. As both advertisements are self explanatory it is not necessary for us to go into detail here

The election of William Perrins to the council to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of H. E. Howard, is a most popular one. Although Mr. Perrins has only been here a short time he has shown a keen interest in the town's affairs not only in the more weighty matters but in social and sporting circles as well. His experience gained in managing one of our largest and most prosperous industries should make him a very valuable member of the council at the present time.

The government gang has just completed work on the bridge over the coulee south of Duke's just north of town. This will be a big improvement in the north trail and will be a great convenience to the farmers of that district, especially in the spring and fall.

In their attack last Sunday between Ypres and Dixmude, the Belgians made an advance of more than three and a half miles, taking 4,000 prisoners.

* * *

American troops who are now taking part in the operations in virtually all sectors of the northern Russian front, have captured several villages in recent fighting.

Prevention of Disease

THE MAN HIMSELF.

The next great advance in prevention of disease lies with the dentist. It is an established fact that chronic diseases, acute diseases and special local diseases, such as neuritis, sciatica and acute paralysis come from mouth infections in the majority of instances; also that appendicitis, diseases of the gall bladder and ulcerated stomach are caused by bacterial decayed or obstructed areas in the capillary circulation at the base of the mucous cells at the roots of the teeth. While there are several sources in the body for the entrance of bacteria and their growth, the mouth is by far the most common situation. In pyorrhea we find these germs in cavities and abscesses at the roots of the teeth.

An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

Call and see me about those lame molars that you have been afraid to bite on for so long. You will be surprised how easy it is to have your mouth put into a normal condition. Dentistry with me is a hobby and years of experience enables me to know what to do for a tooth the minute I look at it.

TO every home there comes a time when every thought, every hope, every prayer for the future centres on the recovery of one loved one. In that hour of anguish, every means to recovery is sought—the highest medical skill, trained nurses, costly treatment. Does the price matter ?

* * * *

It may be so great as to stagger the imagination—a sum beyond the possible.

But does anyone ask, "Can we do it ?"

Money or no money, they do it. And somehow they pay.

It may mean doing without things they think they need. It may mean privations, sacrifices, hardships. They make unbelievable savings, they achieve the impossible, but they get the money to pay.

* * * *

To-day in this critical period of our nationhood, there is imperative need for MONEY—vast sums of money.

Only one way now remains to obtain it.

The nation must save, every community, every family, every individual Canadian must save.

If anyone says "I cannot save" let him consider to what extent he would pinch himself to relieve the sufferings of a loved one at home; and surely he would not pinch less for our fighting brothers in France.

Without suffering actual privations, nearly every family in Canada can reduce its standard of living, can practice reasonable thrift, can make cheerful sacrifice to enrich the life-blood of the nation.

You who read this, get out pencil and paper NOW. Set down the items of your living expense. Surely you will find some items there you can do without.

Determine to do without them.

Start TO-DAY. Save your money so that you may be in a position to lend it to your country in its time of need.

Manitoba Crops Beats All Previous Records

The C. P. R. gives in official figures an interesting record of the phenomenal productive energy of Manitoba this year. Fully 20,000,000 bushels of foodstuffs have been grown in excess of past records this year, which means an additional $40,000,000 more than they received last year. There will be 51,000,000 bushels of wheat at $105,000,000, as compared with the record of last year, which showed a total value of $87,500,000. Three crops—barley, wheat and oats—will come to in money $200,000,000. Other crops have been correspondingly successful and Manitoba is in high spirits. If equally large results cannot be boasted in the other provinces, the farmers all over the west are hopeful. They are getting high prices; the crops are more varied.

To Encourage Sale Of Horse Meat

That the Dominion government is prepared to advance the cause of a market abroad for horse meat is the advice given by Hon. T. A. Crerar, minister of agriculture, in a letter to George Hoadley, M. L. A., who recently returned from Ottawa, where he took the matter up with the authorities.

The department, according to Hon. Mr. Crerar's letter, is prepared to do what it can to facilitate progress along that line, realizing from the communications from the stock breeders that such action is advisable. Mr. Crerar points out, however, that the market would have to be cultivated in France, England and Italy and other European countries entirely, and this would be contingent on the understanding that it would not injure Canada's present meat trade with Great Britain.

THREE WORDS.

There are three words, the sweetest words,
In all of human speech—
More sweet than are all songs of birds,
Or pages poets preach.

This life may be a vale of tears,
A sad and dreary thing—
Three words, and trouble disappears
And birds begin to sing.

Three words and all the roses bloom,
The sun begins to shine.
Three words will cheer the saddest days—
"I love you?" Wrong by heck!—
It is another, sweeter phrase,
"Enclosed find cheque!"

Turkey has made further indirect approaches to the allies through financial channels, which are being considered by the British cabinet, the Standard says it learns on good authority. Important developments, the newspaper announces, are expected.

POETS ATTENTION

The Dominion Press News and Feature Committee of the Victory Loan 1918 organization announces a poem contest in connection with the coming campaign. Canadians with poetical talent are invited to submit offerings not exceeding 200 words, which will be judged largely on their effectiveness as publicity designed to persuade Canadians to buy Victory Bonds. A prize of a $50.00 bond of the new issue will be awarded for the best poem submitted. The next best 24 will be awarded special mention and $5.00 will be paid for those which the committee decides to use in the course of the campaign. Professor M. W. Wallace of the Toronto University, and the editor of Victory Loan National Press News and Feature Service, will be the judges.

The committee offers to supply information concerning the urgency of the situation necessitating the coming loan, to all contestants who may apply to the committee's office, 18 King street west, Toronto.

The contest closes on October 15th, and awards will be announced a few days later.

Warning Issued to Vegetable Buyers

The attention of the Canada Food Board has been called to the practice frequently adopted by licensed dealers in apples, turnips, potatoes and other fruits and vegetables, of having men living in different parts of the country acting as their agents, buying or contracting such produce, superintending the loading of same on cars ready for shipment, and receiving a commission from said dealers for such work.

All such agents operating in the manner mentioned, without first having secured a license from the Board, are doing so contrary to the order dated 13th day of December, 1917, wherein it states:

"That on and after the 1st day of February, 1918, no person shall deal wholesale in fresh fruits or fresh vegetables, without first having obtained a license from the Food Controller," and in violating such order are guilty of an offense and subject to a penalty not to exceed $1,000, and not less than $100.00.

What the Canada Food Board Says

Your job is to grub-stake this world. That is what you are up against, and it is quite a job. You can do it. You have done it for four years, and what was done then can be duplicated.

There is no such a thing as a food surplus in this world. TheThe universe is living from hand to mouth as probably never before in its history.

The stocks of food have been wiped out, and the producers have been taken from the land in large numbers. The call to those remaining in much louder than ever before. It is more insistant, and its demands must be heeded.

The full dinner pail is but a memory for millions on this earth. It can be filled sufficiently to keep life going, but it can only be filled by you. It can't be done in Europe. It must be done here.

Not until the Hun is hammered into submission, not until peace is declared, and commerce resumes its wonted way can we let up for a minute.

Get the tractors on the land. Keep them working day and night. Turn over more acres of land.

This can be done. You have the patriotism, the courage, and the heroism to do it.

German Press Admit Conditions

The allied successes in Macedonia and Palestine have led the Cologne Gazette to anxious consideration regarding future military developments.

"We must do Foch the justice to say he is apparently beginning to obtain on a big scale that strategical unity he has already obtained on French soil," says this leading German newspaper, and after reviewing the situation in the various theatres of war, it concedes that the prosecution from all sides of an offensive against the alliance of the central powers would be a master stroke: Having mentioned the unity of command and the superiority of the allies in men and material as conditions favoring them, it continues:

"We have already pointed out the enviable secrecy observed in the manufacture of armored tanks and the training of their crews, which now number not thousands, but tens of thousands. To these must be added the increase in the number of guns, mine throwers, flame projectors, machine guns, gas and fog ammunition and airplanes of all kinds. No proof is necessary that German industry is unable to accomplish this in similar quantities. Especially as regards the armored tanks, there is no doubt that the numerical superiority is on the side of the enemy, and that he is bound to utilize it to the utmost."

BOLSHEVIKI WANT HELP.

Hints that the Bolsheviki government of Russia may seek alliance with other powers are contained in a note addressed to the people's commissary and Soviets by Nikolai Lenine, the Bolsheviki premier, printed in the Prava of Petrograd, and republished in the Loki Anzeiger of Berlin. The note reads:

"The position on the Czecho-Slovak front is becoming more dangerous daily. We are daily becoming increasingly convinced that alone we are powerless. For the Soviet government there is only one way out, namely, to conclude a defensive and offensive alliance with another power.

"In order to save the power of the workers and peasants we must not even recoil from an alliance with imperialists."

THE LLOYD GEORGE TYPE

The one thing we all admire in Lloyd-George is that we know where to find him. He acts definitely. He is no lukewarm weakling. He fights on like our splendid boys are doing despite the 25,000 casualties since August 8th.

Are you doing your part as well? Have you taken your stand on the thrift question? Have you definitely decided that out of your good returns this year, you will lay by such-and-such an amount for a Victory savings account.

If you have done nothing in the matter, you are not of this Lloyd George type. You have heard the call to bring your dollars into the service of the country when she calls. And having heard, you have not acted. Make the decisive move now. Start the fund at once!

Says Turkie Will Soon Quit War

"There is great excitement in Germany over Bulgaria's step," says a report through German channels received from neutral countries, and there is no reason to doubt that this is true. Almost all news from Bulgaria and Turkey comes through Germany, and even German papers have shown symptoms of keen anxiety as to the loyalty of Germany's allies.

Signs are not wanting that Bulgaria and Turkey feel that they are in the same boat. When Talaat Pasha, the Turkish grand visier, visited Berlin recently, he gave an interview in which he said the war must end this winter, and that it had accomplished all that it could. The German newspapers expressed considerable uneasiness and displeasure over this utterance, which they plainly interpreted as meaning that, as far as Turkey was concerned, the war would end this winter.

If Bulgaria throws up her hands, she cuts the ital cord which connects Germany and Asia. She deals a death blow to Germany's Asiatic ambitions. If Turkey also raises the white flag she will enable the allies in Macedonia and Palestine to be shifted to the western theatre of war. The defection of Bulgaria alone will make it possible for the great allied army to turn against Turkey from its base at Saloniki.

UNITED STATES SENDS OUT MANY QUESTIONAIRES.

Local draft boards in the United States at the direction of Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder, began mailing out questionnaires to the approximately 6,400,000 men between the ages of 19 and 36 years of age, who registered under the Slective Service Act last Thursda y.

British and Canadian subjects within the 19 to 36 age limits, who have 30 days in which to enlist in the British and Canadian armis, will not be sent questionnaires.

ONTARIO CHURCHES TO CONSERVE FUEL.

The boards of churches in rural communities in Ontario will be asked to co-operate with the provincial Fuel Administrator by holding services in one church this winter, the congregations to decide whether the services shall be of a union character or a series for different denominations.

DAMASCUS SURROUNDED.

British forces marching north from Palestine have virtually surrounded the city of Damascus. They are established on the northwest and south of the city, it was officially announced Tuesday.

CAMBRAI IS MINED.

Cambrai has been mined, but the British forces have fought around the town and thus have foilgd the plans of the enemy. The Germans decided on September 1 to burn Cambrai, and forced the civilian population to leave.

AUSTRIA WANTS PEACE.

According to Budapest newspapers, the Austro-Hungarian government desires peace, in agreement with Germany, notwithstanding the fact that measures have been taken for defence, as a result of Bulgaria's withdrawal from the war.

"Feelers" have been put out by Turkey for an armistice. While these advances are said to be semi-official, no account will be taken of them until an official telegram is received.

Reports from the Palestine front indicate that none of the Turkish force of at least 40,000 men trapped by the British through the seizure of the last of the passages of the Jordan, can possibly get away.

Both the management and men alike are deserving of great praise for the interest they display in all patriotic movements since the commencement of the war.

The two Chinamen who were charged with removing a table from a boarding house last week appeared before Magistrates Henderson and Hatcher on Monday afternoon of this week for hearing. F. Baird appeared for the defendants and in the hearing of the case it was pointed out that although the defendants admitted taking the table he did not think he was stealing it, as several of his friends whom he thought were interested in the table were present and saw him taking it. He thought he was just getting the loan of it and did not know it belonged to another party. The case was dismissed and the defendants taxed the costs of the court.
